Service You Want, Results You Deserve; From Condos to Estates.

"Susan's EXTENSIVE knowledge of Honolulu real estate, and her vast experience, were INCREDIBLY pivotal in not only superbly negotiating our deal, but throughout the ENTIRE process. Her contacts throughout the service industry here were part of the reason we got a massive credit in the closing for rehab costs! On time, on the ball, and watching your back, simply put, she's the best agent I've worked with in my 25 years of buying and selling properties. I can't recommend her highly enough."—DAVID D.

"Susan was such a huge help from the beginning to the end. She works from her heart and truly cares. She has an excellent understanding on how to stage and guided us so our home showed well, her negotiating and logic skills amazed to reason with our buyers and she was there making sure our cleaners did a good job to ensure the buyers would move into a clean home. She was not only our REALTOR® but also became our friend. We highly recommend to call her! She is very hands on which direct agents should all be and she tries hard to make it positive for both sides. I am a business owner, I know what a good and hard working person is and that is Susan Borochoy."

—CHARLES K.

"Susan works very very hard to make your dream come true. I highly recommend her for a number of reasons, e.g., unreal work ethic, clear and effective communication, extremely smart and able to problem solve like a pro and has a great sense of humor. Our family agent for life now."
