

Tracy Abrams

CLHMS, RS-78699

Hawaii Island luxury real estate professional Tracy Abrams has received the Corcoran National Ruby Award for her performance last year. With $40 million in luxury realty transactions on Hawaii Island in 2023, Tracy's success continues with more than 20 years in realty sales. Her stellar results illustrate how she always raises the bar within the island's upscale realty market. Over the years, Tracy has earned a reputation for outstanding marketing skills, her attention to detail and keen eye for design. Her outstanding ability to exquisitely stage her clients' homes results in excellent results. She is a respected expert on luxury residential resort properties along the coveted Kona-Kohala Coast on the island's west side, allowing her to share up-to-date information about these properties as well historic perspective on value and precise pricing for today's buyers. Tracy is perhaps most sought after by both buyers and sellers for the strong reputation she has built for protecting her clients' privacy throughout each transaction, while working to exceed their expectations.
