

Anna Severson

REALTOR-BROKER, RB-23178

Kama'āina, mother, real estate broker, and banana bread maker. I offer local style, global reach, and Maui market expertise to my clients. Like many of us at Hawai'i Life, I have deep roots in the islands, and my business thrives on referrals from my 'ohana, hui, and past clients. So here is an official mahalo nui for your ongoing introductions and support. I live in West Maui with my family, where we love to get in the ocean and do our best to be stewards of the islands.

I am honored to represent Hawai'i's most innovative real estate team: Hawai'i Life. My membership in Forbes Global Properties connects luxury home sellers with the extraordinary 133 million monthly visitors to Forbes' digital platform. Imua!
