

Amy Frazier

REALTOR-BROKER, KAUAI

“I am honored to be a Hawaii Business Magazine Top Performer. I extend heartfelt thanks to my clients and to those who continue to support and trust me throughout each transaction. This recognition is a testament to the dedication and commitment I have put into my work, and it fills me with immense pride.”

- Amy Frazier

A reputation built on relationships, trust, and unparalleled service.

With an unwavering commitment to community, family, and clients, Amy’s real estate philosophy revolves around delivering nothing less than excellence. Known for her wholehearted dedication to every task, she prides herself on cultivating strong relationships and trust with her clients and within the brokerage community. Through involvement in complex, high-profile transactions, she has established a reputation for providing unparalleled service to all clients, regardless of the scale of their needs.

Situated on 1/2 acre of coveted oceanfront land, this contemporary estate designed by architect Norman Lacayo offers both private refuge and a phenomenal gathering place. With about 150 feet of beach frontage, its enviable location is steps from Anini Beach and boasts 180° views of the ocean from the expansive decks. From the lush and tropical garden-like yard to the sun-soaked decks above, this is an oceanfront estate designed for exquisite comfort and impressive entertaining. MLS # 705933