Originally from New York City, Pamela Reader relocated to the Valley Isle in 2001, initially planning for just a year. However, Maui captured her heart, and now, more than two decades later, she is happily raising her family in paradise. With a genuine love of life on Maui and a warm personality, she is able to put her clients at ease and have fun searching for their dream home. She is extremely organized, with excellent follow-through and a strong commitment to making every client feel like my top priority.

Beyond real estate, Pam serves her Maui community by volunteering in various capacities but most recently is committed to the rebuilding of Lahaina, having lost her own home in the 2023 wildfires. When not working or volunteering, she cherishes family time, exploring Maui's beauty, and indulging in hobbies like hiking and crafts.

"Pam is committed to rebuilding her beautiful hometown of Lahaina. Please consider contributing to the Maui Strong Fund".
