

Wendy Rice Peterson

R(S)61995

Wendy Rice Peterson is an award-winning realtor specializing in residential and vacant land properties on Maui. She was born and raised in the islands and has resided on Maui for over 30 years. She is deeply rooted in the community as her family history dates back six generations in Hawaii. Working with Wendy, clients experience the invaluable edge of her local knowledge, collaborative approach and generous aloha spirit as she thrives on connecting clients to the island. Wendy has an expansive 20+ year career in real estate and is consistently recognized as Top 3% of Maui agents, Top 110 in the State, and Top 1.5% in the Country. She was honored to be awarded the 2023 Realtor Sales Person of the Year award by the Realtor Association of Maui. Her daughter, Kate Peterson, recently joined Island Sotheby's and together they make a fantastic team. Whether buying or selling on Maui, Wendy and Kate are committed to guiding clients in their journey to finding their next dream home, property or business investment and ensuring a positive experience.
